

SPIRIT OF THE AGE.
Woodstock, Vt., Aug. 19, 1885

W. R. R. TIME TABLE.

The following is the running time of the trains over the Woodstock Railroad, commencing Tuesday, Nov. 25, 1884:

Trains Going East.—No. 2, Mail, A. M. Leave Woodstock, 10:40; Taffville, 10:50; Quechee, 11:02; Dewey's Mills, 11:07; Hartford, 11:25; White River Junction, 11:30.

Trains Going West.—No. 4, Accommodation, P. M.—Leave Woodstock, 4:15; Taffville, 4:25; Quechee, 4:35; Dewey's Mills, 4:39; Hartford, 4:55; White River Junction, 5:00.

Trains Going West.—No. 1, Accommodation, A. M.—Leave White River Junction, 7:30; Hartford, 7:35; Dewey's Mills, 7:58; Quechee, 8:00; Taffville, 8:10; Woodstock, 8:20.

Trains Going West.—No. 3, Mail, P. M.—Leave White River Junction, 1:50; Hartford, 1:55; Dewey's Mills, 2:12; Quechee, 2:17; Taffville, 2:27; Woodstock, 2:30.

J. G. PORTER, Sup't.

Rev. A. B. Dacom, formerly pastor of the Cong'l church, is expected to preach next Sunday in exchange with Rev. J. F. Brodie.

We wish our local correspondents would "pick up" a little and send us the news in their locality every week—we want all the news. We would also like a correspondent in Quechee, Sharon, Felchville, Proctorsville, Amsteden, Ludlow and Chester.

A GIRL'S PHOTOGRAPH.
Over the way, all day,
She thumbs the latest lay,
And at night she wishes and wishes,
But mother has to wash the dishes.

PENCIL MARKS.—Great growing time.—Summer is on the home stretch.—Ten G. A. R. Posts were represented at the soldiers' re-union at Windsor last week.—Those long felt wants at the Junction "still live," and their love for each other is not quite so strong as Ruth's was for Naomi.—Be just to your enemies, generous to your friends and independent of both.—Martin S. Myers started for Boston on a business and pleasure trip.—Norman Holington is at work in Bethel; "Nom." look out for those Bethelonians, you know what happened to the man who went down to Jericho!—Forrest Richmond has moved his livery stable from the old French stand on Main street to the Eagle Hotel stable.—Bradleyville is not set down in the guide-books or maps of this village, few know where it is located, and yet six dwellings have gone up there this summer; talk about this village not growing! why the man that does must have foolishness three inches thick on his brain.—This is the season of the year when the green apple yanks the small boy out of bed in the middle of the night when ghosts are abroad, but what does he care about ghosts then, rolls him around on the floor and pulls him down stairs to the presence of his mother, who hunts in the family medicine chest for something to hit his case.—Charles E. H. Moore, wife and son of Concord, N. H., made the Ave office a pleasant call Tuesday; Charles used to do good work on the Ave, and it always gives us pleasure to see him.—Sixty-five soldiers, members of the G. A. R. Post here, and several civilians, attended the re-union at Windsor last week; nearly all were happy there, except those fellows who went over to Cornish expecting to replenish their "canteens," and came back without; they looked as solemn as hired mourners at a funeral or small-pox patients after recovery.—Rev. O. K. Crosby, former pastor of the Universalist society here, who retired on account of ill health, is in town on a visit, and a reception will be given for his benefit at the church parlors to-morrow (Thursday) evening.—Meat cuts are about as thick as flies.—The Woodstock Grange, P. of H., will meet with P. A. Pierce, Friday afternoon, August 28th.—Miss Ada, daughter of M. C. Fairbanks, and that veteran in the business, Carl Mower, has taken his place.—Services will be resumed in the M. E. church next Sunday.—About seventy-five attended the Methodist basket picnic at Silver Lake, Barnard, yesterday, and a good time is reported.—John H. Pinks is journeying in Boston, and is dividing his time between business and pleasure.—Rev. B. M. Tillotson will preach in Woodstock and Hartland next Sunday.—James Hitecock of Petersham, Mass., made us a pleasant call last week; James was on a visit to our venerable Democratic friend, Stillman French, Esq., of Pomfret, his father-in-law.—W. H. Smith of English Mills, by the way one of our most enterprising farmers, exhibited at the office the other day, some golden asparagus, last year's crop, that were just as fresh and nice as the day they were picked; no extra pains were taken to preserve them, simply kept in a barrel.—Richmond & Taylor's horse took it into his head that he would run away from this sad and wicked world no day last week, but he only got as far as Billings' hill, when a lineal descendant of Adam captured him and brought him back to work again, and so serious damage was done.—Lot of "Big Indians" in town; they have treed their tents on Perry's meadow, free exhibitions of Indian life each evening, to the great delight of the mall boy, and sell pills and plasters for the ills of flesh during the day.

Gov. Julius Converse died in Dixville Notch, N. H., Sunday, Aug. 16, in the 87th year of his age. Mr. Converse, a quarter of a century ago, was one of the leading lawyers of Windsor county bar, and the law firm of Tracy & Converse had a state and national reputation for legal acumen that few law firms enjoyed; and later, the firm of Converse & French. A few years ago he lost his family suddenly by death, wife, sister and niece—all within a month—which we think unsettled his mind, and he leaned upon others for support. Shortly after softening of the brain set in and he has been a mental wreck ever since. It is said to see the curtain drop before the foot-lights go out. He leaves a young widow and a daughter some ten years old. His remains were brought here yesterday for burial, and his funeral will take place at his late residence at three o'clock this afternoon.

Our whilom friend, Frank B. Tillotson, writes us from Ogden, Utah, that he was offered a good position in Salt Lake City, provided he would take six wives and give his salary to the Mormon church. He wanted the position, but never having got up the courage to take one wife, the offer of six in a bunch prostrated him, and he took the first train out of the city, and is now recuperating in Ogden.—Frank reports railroading in the West very hard at the present time and he advises all railroad boys in the east to remain here contented until the revival of better times.

NEWSPAPER DEAD BEATS.—We have a few on our list that we intend to air. A man who will sneak off and leave his newspaper in the post-office unpaid for, is a "low cuss," and the man who lets his bill run several years and stand repeated debts is not much better. We thought we could tell an honest man by looking him square in the face, but we can't no more than we can tell where an old toper got his last drink by the smell of his breath. S. B. Spaulding, of Quechee, beat us in our judgment of an honest man. Don't know where he is now, but we know where he ought to be. He is a rogue and a liar.

Barnard.
Benjamin Maxham and wife are in town stopping with Willard Wilson. Mrs. Mary E. Chamberlin is very sick with typhoid fever. Mrs. A. W. Bigelow has returned from her visit to Springfield. Barnard is getting to be a great place for picnics. We have a party here almost every day, and they seem to enjoy themselves by a sail on the lake. Mr. Wright, who owns the old Danforth farm, is building another silo. He has some fifteen or twenty acres in corn and ensilage. Mr. Wright makes farming pay even in these hard times.

Mrs. James M. Griffin of Elkhart, Ind., who has been visiting at her father's, Lawrence Cootey, for a week or two, has returned to her home. Charles E. H. Moore, wife and two children of Concord, N. H., are stopping at his father's, Alonzo Moore. Ed. Chamberlin, who has carried on the wheelwright business at the village several years, has gone to Dakota to live.

Our venerable democratic friend, Moses Dutton, Esq., we are sorry to learn, is in failing health, and is attended by Dr. McMillan. Leonard Spaulding of Plainfield, N. H., has bought back his old home, and moved back on to it. Frank Stearns has bought of Mrs. Bates, the property formerly owned by the late George White. Henry C. Howard lies very low from the effects of a shock, which completely paralyzed him and renders him speechless.

The road case of the Union Soapstone Company against the town of Chester has finally been settled. The town will build a road, the company paying $400 toward the same. The high school opens Monday, Aug. 31, and examination of pupils intending to enter will be held the previous Saturday.

W. R. Junction.
The White River Medical society meets at this place, Wednesday, Aug. 26. Papers will be presented as follows: "Scarlatina," Dr. T. H. Currier; "Sessions of the Cerebral Hemispheres," Dr. W. T. Smith; "Fractures and Dislocations of the Vertebral Column," Dr. J. M. Greene. Return checks will be given over the Central railroad.

Felchville.
Corat T. Stearns is so expert with the rifle that he easily hits a two-inch target at ten rods. P. B. Wolcott has rented his shop to another blacksmith, as the one who hired it before only stood about a week.

Royalton.
Mr. Ira P. Adams has a two years old full blood Jersey cow from which he made one half pound of butter from two quarts of her milk, it being very warm weather at the time. He also has corn in his field 9 feet high.

Bridgewater.
Emerson Chase has greatly improved the looks at the Center by painting his house and shop white, and is doing some first class blacksmithing.

Mr. Soper of South Royalton, recently set a grave stone here at the graves of Mr. and Mrs. Alfred Hubbard, said to be the finest in the yard. They were worthy people.

Rutland.
"Eli" still lives and moves. The time for making entries for the State Fair expires Monday, Aug. 24. M. F. Meldon is helping to write mails between Rutland and St. Albans.

E. H. Wolcott recently of the Herald staff goes to St. Johnsbury to work on the Caledonian. Warrants are soon to be issued against several parties, for perjury in liquor cases. Henry A. Harmon and the notorious H. W. Love have gone into partnership, and opened a law office in Pierpoint's block.

The recent cut of 10 per cent in the price of labor at some of the shops here is "rough on the poor," and many will have to seek work elsewhere. Three young girls have taken the veil of the order of St. Joseph in the convent chapel in this place. They were Cecelia Dougherty, in religion Sister Mary Angela, and Katie Dudley, in religion Sister Mary Helena, both of Burlington, and Nellie Magnus, in religion Sister Mary Agatha of Winoski.

Silas G. Denton's house was burned Monday evening. Loss, $4000 to $5000; insurance, $2900.

VERMONT.
The State has just paid $36,231 for the keeping of her insane people at Brattleboro the past year. The Burlington Clipper man has been around visiting hotels. He says the feed was good, but has never a word about the drinks—the heaviest part of his keeping.

Mrs. Hannah Holland of Townsend, was 101 years old July 31, and hasn't made a particle of fuss about it. The Bennington woolen mills began work recently, after being idle nearly two years. Rochester hunters chased a bear two days and were finally chased out of the woods themselves. The State Fair will be held at Howard Park, Burlington, Sept. 7, 8, 9, 10 and 11. The Vermont State Agricultural society and the Champlain Valley association unite. A Wardsboro boy now in Denver, was caught in a snow storm while going up Pike's Peak, July 5, and nearly froze to death. Moral—Don't go up Pike's Peak in the summer.

The proposed scheme for having a new bank in St. Albans does not seem to take successfully it is said. St. Albans' folks, somehow, don't take readily "schemes" lately. Curtis C. Davis, a farmer residing in Athens, committed suicide by hanging, one morning last week. Pecuniary troubles had unsettled his mind.—He leaves a widow and seven children. The Vermont mutual fire insurance company has insured the property of the central Vermont railroad company 1,252,000. This is the largest policy ever issued in New England. "Gov." Gillingham knows how to do it.

The death is announced at San Francisco of Judge Charles H. Swift of Sacramento. He was a son of the late Charles Swift of Fairfax, and 78 years of age. The Universalist convention of Vermont and Province of Quebec will hold its annual session in the Universalist church of Bellows Falls, Aug. 25, 26 and 27. The first meeting will be held at 7 o'clock Thursday evening, Aug. 25. About two hundred delegates and visitors are expected. As Warren Hulet of Pawlet was reaching for a piece of pork in a barrel he caught a spotted adder three feet and two inches long, which he threw across the cellar. The reptile showed fight when removed from the cellar.—Such treatment would make anything that had life show fight.

Judge Thurman of Ohio thinks there is no need to inquire whether or not the present administration is doing the best thing for the democratic party so long as it is doing the best thing for the country. He says parties are not organized to divide up official patronage but to give the country good government, and so long as they succeed in governing wisely they are certain to have their share of the offices. If the politicians could only bring themselves to believe this they would be spared many useless fears about the future. A negro woman, addressing her mistress said: "Why doan yer let me cook me'n I does?" "Because you cook enough." "Wall, dat's er nice way ter do," she replied as she turned away. "Thinks dat I ain't got nothing to do but to cook fer dis house. Doan 'peer ter think dat I've got er big family on my han's, I 'spises ter see white wimmen so skittish. Whar I worked de las't time I wuz all right. De lady wuz sick."—[Arkansas Traveller.

ALL SORTS.
The Grant funeral cost about $30,000. There were 2100 deaths in Spain from cholera one day recently, and 6464 new cases. The new capitol building for Texas is to be built by convicts. Dr. Prime's estate is estimated at $300,000, most of which he is said to have made out of the New York Observer.

Patsy: "Your friend wins the bet. Parnell had nothing to do with the land slide at Jefferson. Oregon women are proficient in horse-back riding. They ride, not sideways, but otherwise. The girl who yearns to be stylish is now anxiously inquiring how to cultivate freckles. Ingersoll is estimated to be worth $200,000, one-half of which he got out of lecturing against orthodox religion. There is nothing so sweet as duty, and all the best pleasures of life come in the wake of duties done.—[Jean Ingelow.

Tom Hughes's experimental colony at Rugby, Tenn., now numbers between 350 and 400, only half of whom are English. "Ah! you flatter me," lisped a dude to a pretty girl with whom he was conversing. "No I don't," was the reply. "You couldn't be any flatter than you are now." A new colony called Chicago has been started in San Diego county, Cal. The town house and jail were up and mortgaged within 48 hours after the first arrival.

The New England fair this year is to be held at Bangor, Me., Aug. 31 to Sept. 4. President Cleveland has been invited to attend. Gen. Butler, ex-Secretary Robeson and Oliver V. Barrett, of Washington, have organized a company to go into the stock raising business on a big scale. Duncan MacGregor, after whom Mount MacGregor is named, is a retired farmer, now living at Glens Falls, N. Y.

A young man in Argyle, was married on the evening of July 29, and within 24 hours was after a warrant for his mother-in-law. Four children were born to Mr. and Mrs. John Ash, living near Lenoke, Ark., on the 24th of July. Their aggregate weight was 21 pounds, and 36 hours after birth they were well and hearty. The mother is a small woman, 28 years old. "Now, Patsy," said an Irishman to his son, if you shole Mrs. Murphy's smoothin' 'orins, I hope ye'll be honest enough to own up to it."—[Cincinnati Merchant Traveler.

It is said that a woman always shades her eyes by turning her hand over—the palm upward—so that the back will not sunburn. During the civil war a woman in the army in male attire was discovered by this gesture. There is a club in Portland called the Mormons, and its captain is known as Elder Murphy. A simple cure for sleeplessness has been advised by a Parisian physician for an American travelling through Europe who suffered from wakeful nights. The remedy was complete cessation of mental exertion in the evening, and the formation of a habit of retiring at the same time each evening. No letter writing, no reading of excitable books was allowed, and the mind was placed in as passive a state as possible. The American, who had been a victim of sleeplessness for years, returned home cured.

HARPER'S MAGAZINE for August is a brilliant mid-summer number. It opens with a delightful frontispiece picture by E. A. Abbey, illustrating a quaint poem by Austin Dobson, entitled "A Love Song." Edwin A. Carley contributes a timely article on the "Social Democrats in the Reichstag," which shows the recent remarkable development of socialism in Germany, illustrated. The illustrated article on English and American Railway is very entertaining. Installments of continued stories are given; also new short stories. The "Easy Chair" and the "Drawer" are good, as usual. For sale here at the Bookstores.

Brother Greene, after about eighteen years experimenting, has come to the conclusion that there is nothing like shingle to shed rain off a building, and is having a tip roof put upon his block, in a part of which we have been a sufferer all that time from every dew that fell. Talk about weeping for the fall of Jerusalem! If there is anything that will draw — tears, it is a leaky roof. Pure blood is absolutely necessary in order to enjoy perfect health. Hood's Sarsaparilla purifies the blood and strengthens the system. GOLDEN DAYS is the boys magazine, although the girls also enjoy it, as do the older members of the household. It is interesting without being sensational, and instructive as well. James Elverson, publisher, Philadelphia.

DANGER!
Are your buildings insured to indemnify you against loss by fire?
Is your household furniture and wearing apparel protected by a policy of insurance, which will reimburse you for loss in case of fire?
Will your horses, cattle, and sheep be insured against pecuniary loss if killed by lightning during the approaching season?
Is your life insured, that in the event of death your family will be cared for?
Have you a policy that will bring you a weekly indemnity should you be disabled by accident?
These are pertinent questions, and should be considered by every person who would carefully protect their interests.

COFFEE!
In our Coffee business we have aimed to secure the best Old Gov't Java—with no exceptions—that could be obtained.—It is warranted STRICTLY PURE, and the best drinking Java ever produced.

A POSITIVE PROOF
That our Coffee is considered the best on the market, exists in the fact that our sales have increased from 90 to 100 per cent— in the past year. There is no question about the merit of the goods—it speaks for itself—one trial and you are convinced. We have it come once a week in cans—grind it ourselves. In this way you get the whole strength of the coffee.

TEAS! TEAS!!
We have bought one years' stock of Teas—new crop—harvest of April, 1885, and they are finer than ever. Japans of all grades, both colored and uncolored:
Young Hyson, English Breakfast, and Formosa Oolong,

all of which we offer at LOWEST PRICES. We are having a large trade on them, and every purchase leads to duplicates, so we know the consumer must be pleased with the goods—and from our personal experience, we know they are nice.—Our 50 ct. Japan Tea is a great bargain. We do not put this Tea out to make a large profit, but as a drive, and it is one in every sense of the word. Samples freely given.

FLOUR, FLOUR, FLOUR!
Bear in mind we are handling large quantities of Flour, and sell it at a very small profit—Patent, St. Louis and Michigan—every bbl. warranted. Don't fail to see us before you buy.

F. N. BILLINGS.
STATE OF VERMONT. [At a Probate Court held at Woodstock, within and for said District, on the twenty-fifth day of May, A. D. 1885. Present, Hon. John Porter, Judge.]
Whereas, Alfred Sargent, Administrator of said estate, has presented to said Court his petition in writing, setting forth the amount of debts due from the said deceased and the expenses of administration, the value of the personal estate, and the situation of the real estate, and that the said estate is insolvent, and that it is necessary, to pay said debts, and a part cannot be paid without injury to those interested in the real estate, and therefore making application to said Court for license to sell the whole or said real estate, and all other real estate of the said estate, if any such there be within this State; and that the Court should order the licensed interest of the widow to be sold as a separate estate, and the same would greatly depreciate the value of the residue of the estate;—
Thereupon the Court appoints the third Wednesday (seventeenth day) of June next as a time, and the Probate Office in Woodstock aforesaid as a place, for the hearing and deciding on said application, and orders that notice of said application be given to all persons interested in said estate, the reason for the same, and the time and place of hearing, by publishing three weeks successively in the Journal of the State a newspaper printed at Woodstock in this State, which declares in the neighborhood of the above interested (all which publications shall be previous to said time of hearing) a copy of the record of this order, that they may appear before said Court and be heard in the matter of said application, if they so desire.
A true record.
